

City Council Bulk Uplift Service

The City Council informs us that the Bulk Uplift Service will not operate after Friday 20 March, until further notice.

If you happen to need this service please contact the office for advice on alternative arrangements.

There is no planned disruption of bin collections.